Day 1

Direction:
We value perseverance: setting and pursuing goals and developing leadership skills

Exploration:
We value inquiry: being academically dedicated, thoughtful, intellectual risk-takers who consider both global and local issues

Inclusion:
We value balance: supporting all members of our community, inclusive of language, culture, and background

Compassion:
We value service: striving to be caring, empathetic citizens

1. STUCO – Today’s Spirit Week theme is Vacation / Tourist Day; dress like you are on vacation! Tomorrow is Y2K Day; dress in the early 2000s style! Don’t forget to log your grade points in the tunnel during lunch. There will be a special prize wheel that you can spin to win treats or school merch if you dress up and log your points, so don't miss it!
2. Textiles Club - Do you have any damaged clothes that you can't donate but don't want to throw out? Bring them to the Steam room for the textiles club to use! And fellow textile artists, do you need materials or tools or simply want a time and place to make things? If so, come on down to the Steam room today to join!
3. Future Medics Club - Hey bucks! Future Medics Club invites all CMMC students to hear guest speaker, Urologist Dr Jeff Saranchuk today in the theatre at lunch! Everyone is welcome. See you there!
4. Summer Job Opportunity - The office of Tracy Schmidt, with the government of Manitoba, is offering an apprenticeship-style summer work program for youth interested in government and community service. This is a paid position. If you are interested and are 18 or turning 18 by summer, please see Mr. Moore.
5. YAS - The Buckeye of the Year Talent Show will be held on Thursday, March 26th at lunch in the theatre! Come on down to watch talented students and teachers perform! Admission is free, but if you bring a canned food donation, you’ll get a free treat from the bake sale held outside the theatre. Or just bring some cash to buy treats for the show! See you there, Bucks!
