

Dave Orton Memorial Hockey Scholarship Award

Dave Orton 1958 – 2000

Dave Orton was born and raised in Transcona, He graduated from Transcona Collegiate Institute in 1976 and later went on to graduate from Red River Community College with and Electrical Technology diploma in 1979. Dave's career took him to Calgary where he became President of TransWest Design Associates.

Dave was taken from us at the young age of 42. Growing up in Transcona Dave played Junior hockey with the Transcona Railers and was a member of the Transcona golf club, he took great pride in his Transcona heritage. The greatest legacies left by Dave were his ability to bring friends and family together as well as fostering the pride in his community with everyone he touched.
