

Students shall be held responsible for damage to divisional and/or school property resulting from willfulness or neglect. The principal may, if necessary, refer the matter to the superintendent's department. Any money received as restitution for damaged property shall be turned in to the secretary-treasurer for appropriate accounting and disbursement.

A restitution program in cooperation with the law agencies may be set up which allows the student responsible for the damages to work a number of hours equivalent in lieu of payment in cash for the cost of damages.
