

E-Memo January 16, 2026

Truth and Reconciliation Presented by Clayton Sandy

Adults are welcome to join us on Tuesday, January 20 6:00 pm in the library.

Clayton Sandy is a respected knowledge keeper, cultural advisor, and community activist who's spent his working life educating generations of non-Indigenous people in the province about the history of Indigenous people in this country. His home community is Sioux Valley Dakota First Nation. He has had the opportunity to work in many provincial government departments, including Natural Resources, Energy and Mines, Labour, Civil Service Commission, Family Services, and Education and Training. Clayton will present for 90 minutes and then have a question-and-answer session for 30 minutes.
