Digital Verification Form

This year we are excited to introduce some changes. Normally your child(ren) would be bringing home a paper copy of our student data verification form to ensure all your students information, including contact information are as up to date as possible. This year these forms are available to you digitally on the parent portal. Please ensure you submit your information as soon as possible.

Guidance for use of the parent portal as well as specific help for filling out digital forms can be found on our divisional website under Parents & Students, PowerSchool Parent Portal.
