

COMMUNITY SERVICE STUDENT-INITIATED PROJECT APPLICATION FORM

To be completed by the student prior to beginning the community service activity.

The Community Service Student-Initiated Project (SIP) Credit Option enables students to make contributions to their community by volunteering for worthwhile causes or organizations and to receive recognition for the civic skills, knowledge, values and attitudes developed in the volunteer activity.

The volunteering done by students participating in this SIP is not the responsibility of the school, school division or the provincial department of education but is an opportunity made available to students to obtain credit for private activity.
