

COMMUNITY SERVICE STUDENT-INITIATED PROJECT CREDIT

Students enrolled in Grade 9 to Grade 12 courses in the River East Transcona School Division may earn one community service student-initiated project credit during their Senior Years program by volunteering for worthwhile causes and organizations. The community service in which the student engages must occur outside of any school or school division in the province of Manitoba.

This policy is subject to the guidelines that are outlined in JJK-R – Guidelines for A Community Service Student-Initiated Project Credit and JJK-E1 – Community Service Student-initiated Project Parent/Guardian Approval Form.
