

MARCH Upcoming EVENTS

Wolf Pride Assembly Kiss the Goat for a Great Cause!

Chief Peguis School is currently raising funds for goats through Free the Children International. Every $50 raised will buy a goat to provide sustainable food and income for a family in need.

Wednesday March 18th @2:00 p.m. Transformers Club will have an assembly to celebrate the work our school has been doing. Five lucky staff members will be kissing a real goat provided by Deer Meadow Farms as the result of our "Kiss the Goat Vote." Come and celebrate what we've been up to!

Donations and votes for your favourite staff member are welcome from the public!

DRESS CODE

Birds are chirping and the sun is shining!!!! As the weather warms and we change into our spring wardrobes, we would like to remind our students and parents of the dress code for this time of year. Clothing resembling beachwear (bare midriiffs, halter tops, spaghetti straps, strapless, etc...) is best left for out of school times.

A copy of the dress code can be found on our website under "Documents and Forms"
