Genre: Sports

“Off the Cross Bar” is about a young boy that moves after his father passes away. The boy’s name is Charlie and he is 15 years old. He is having some trouble with making new friends. Charlie’s favourite thing to do is to play hockey. Luckily for him his new school, Terrence Falls High, has a hockey team. This is one thing that Charlie really wants to do. Will Charlie make the team? Will he make new friends? Read the book to find out...

Recommendation: I recommend this book to people who like hockey or sports. This book is funny, easy to read and really exiting!
