Looking for something awesome to do tonight?

Come on out and cheer on our grade 10 and 12 drama classes as they present their recent projects AT 6:30pm in the THEATRE. The first is an inventive show about the price you'd pay to protect your loved ones, and the second show is about how to survive a zombie apocalypse! The entire evening runs just a little over an hour so you'll be home by 8pm!

The KEC Library Learning Commons will be closed during P1, P5 & P6 today for a presentation.

Assembly TODAY during period 5 in the gym. Information will be provided about CONVOCATION which will happen on June 25th & how to book your time slot!

KEC Scholarship Applications are due tomorrow! No late applications will be accepted. There will be an opportunity at lunch tomorrow in Room 205 to get any help with your final applications.
